

City of Panama City Quality of Life Department Community Event Announcements

SLIDE 1 – On February 2, the City of Panama City and Panama City Symphony Orchestra continued their lunchtime concert series with Katie Ott on harp and Sarah Jane Young playing flute. Close to 60 people attended this mid-day concert at City Hall. Our next lunchtime concert at City Hall will be on Wednesday March 2nd at noon.

TRANSITION TO SLIDE 2 – Panama City Quality of Life, park maintenance crews spent the last few weeks prepping the City's athletic properties for the upcoming spring sports season. Along with installing new irrigation systems, and improving the overall aesthetics of city parks, crews have been prepping the field surfaces with modern, industry standard equipment.

TRANSITION TO SLIDE 3 – Continuing with the effort to Re-tree PC, the City handed out a combined 650 southern magnolias and live oaks to Panama City residents during our Valentine's Day Tree Giveaway. This tree giveaway was held February 12 at both the St. Andrews and Historic Downtown farmer's markets.

TRANSITION TO SLIDE 4 – The ladies of DADSRA's Senior Living Program spent Monday, February 14 dancing the day away at the inaugural Valentine's Day Dance and Dinner. The Senior Living Program meets every Thursday from 9 a.m. – 2 p.m. at the Oakland Terrace Park clubhouse.

TRANSITION TO SLIDE 5 – Once again the City of Panama City is partnering with the non-profit Palmetto Paint PC to host Teen Tuesday Paint Night. Be sure to join us tonight, February 22nd, from 6-7 p.m. at the Center for the Arts. Parents or guardians are encouraged to participate with their child.

TRANSITION TO SLIDE 6 On February 26, celebrate Black History Month with us out at McKenzie Park downtown, from noon – 5 pm. at the City of Panama City Family Heritage Reunion. Along with food, music and local artists, we're hosting "Spoken Word", a High School Rap Battle competition, Praise Teams, and the Michael Grady Choir. Additionally, we'll recognize the historic significance of the Jackson E. Jones Baseball league within the Panama City community.

TRANSITION TO SLIDE 7 – Finally, the City of Panama City is happy to announce the official grand re-opening of Oak Grove Field at 17th and Lincoln Avenue. Come join the celebration on March 4 from 6-9 pm., with the Jackson E. Jones Baseball league, we invite you to join us out at Oak Grove Park for live music with a DJ, games, and a good ole fashion cookout during our Oak Grove Field Community Day. Panama City would also like to thank Florida Power and Light for their hard work and generous donation, helping Panama City get this park ready for use, specifically in providing the lighting at the park. Without the help of great community partners like FPL, projects like this would never come to fruition.

END SLIDE PRESENTATION