

City of Panama City Community Event Announcements

SLIDE 1 – Tuesday, March 29, The City of Panama City in partnership with Palmetto Paint PC held a Teen Paint Night out at the Frank Nelson clubhouse. The next Teen Paint Night takes place April 26, this time at the Panama City Center of the Arts. Parents, you are encouraged to participate with your child.

TRANSITION TO SLIDE 2 – The Panama City Center for the Arts held a ribbon cutting for several new exhibits in the Main, and Miller and Cafe Art Galleries, April 1. Also, on the agenda that evening was the unveiling of their newest permanent public art installation, Transformation, created by local glass artist, Dr. Marlene East.

TRANSITION TO SLIDE 3 – Back by popular demand, Quality of Life is bringing our youth tennis camp to Oakland Terrace, Thursdays beginning April 7 until May 19. Instruction runs from 4:30 – 5:30 PM and is open to all youth ages 7 – 13.

TRANSITION TO SLIDE 4 – Bring the kids out to Oakland

Terrace Park April 16 from 9 - 11 a.m. for some family fun at the annual Krewe of St. Andrews Easter Egg Hunt! There will be games, face painting, arts and crafts, and ice cream sandwiches. And kids, look for the golden eggs to win a special prize.

TRANSITION TO SLIDE 5 – Panama City is teaming up with Legacy Arborist Services to host a free Tree Care Workshop and Giveaway on National Arbor Day, April 29, from 9 - Noon out at the Oakland Terrace Clubhouse.

This free 3-hour tree care workshop covers a wide range of topics from protecting tree roots, to tree planting and tree pruning. In exchange for your attendance in this relevant and informative workshop, each participant will receive a free 7-gallon Winged Elm. You must register at pcgov.org for this event.

TRANSITION TO SLIDE 6 – On Saturday, May 21, join us at Carl Gray Park located on Collegiate Dr. in Panama City and enjoy live music, food trucks, and fun at the inaugural #TessStrong Food Truck Festival. There is no entry fee for this event. Ten percent of all vendor proceeds go to benefit Mothers Against Drunk Driving of Northwest Florida.

In May of 2021, Tess Rowland, Panama City WMBB News 13 anchor, was severely injured when she was hit head-on by a drunk driver while traveling to work at around 2:45 in the morning. Almost a year later, Tess is still recovering. Since that time, Tess has made it her mission to combat impaired and drunk driving.

TRANSITION TO SLIDE 7 – Welcome to the Year of the Tiger!!! DADSRA-Panhandle and Panama City Quality of Life are excited to announce the inaugural Asian American/Pacific Islander Festival, Discover Asia, downtown at McKenzie Park, May 21, from 3-8 p.m.! Explore Asian and Pacific Islander culture with an evening filled with arts and crafts, music and dance, plants, and exotic cuisine! This fun-filled virtual daytrip to the orient is something the whole family is sure to love!

END SLIDE PRESENTATION

