

City of Panama City Community Event Announcements

SLIDE 1 – DADSRA teamed up with Palmetto Paint PC to bring the fine arts over to the ladies of the Senior Living Program. The Senior Living Program meets every Thursday at the Oakland Terrace Clubhouse from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

TRANSITION TO SLIDE 2 – As part of the ReTree PC effort, the City of Panama City hosted a National Arbor Day Tree Care Workshop and Giveaway, April 29, out at Oakland Terrace Park. Thirty-four Panama City Residents signed up for the workshop and received a free 7-gallon winged elm tree to take home in exchange for their participation.

TRANSITION TO SLIDE 3: The Tupelo Beekeepers Association along with Living Healthy Simplified hosted an interactive field day at the C.M. Kidd Harris Community Food Forest Saturday, April 30. Upwards of 50 people turned out to learn back-yard bee keeping basics to include hive management and honey extraction.

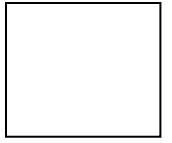

TRANSITION TO SLIDE 4 - May is known nationally as Mental Health Awareness Month. Come out to Daffin Park, May 21, for a family friendly community gathering of resources supporting those affected by substance use and mental health challenges. This event runs from 1-4 pm. and is brought to you by the folks over at the Bay of Hope.

TRANSITION TO SLIDE 5 – Also on Saturday, May 21, join us at Carl Gray Park located on Collegiate Dr. in Panama City and for live music, food trucks, and fun at the inaugural #TessStrong Food Truck Festival. There is no entry fee for this event. Ten percent of all vendor proceeds go to benefit Mothers Against Drunk Driving of Northwest Florida.

TRANSITION TO SLIDE 6 – Welcome to the Year of the Tiger!!! DADSRA-Panhandle and the City of Panama City are excited to announce the inaugural Asian American/Pacific Islander Festival, Discover Asia, downtown at McKenzie Park, May 21, from 3-8 p.m.! Explore Asian and Pacific Islander culture with an evening filled with arts and crafts, music and dance, plants, and exotic cuisine! This fun-filled virtual daytrip to the orient is something the whole family is sure to love!

TRANSITION TO SLIDE 7 – Calling all Teens! Our next Teen Tuesday: Paint Night takes place May 31 out at the Frank Nelson Clubhouse! Join us on the last Tuesday of each month to create step-by-step canvases co-hosted by Palmetto Paint PC. Admission is FREE! The fun begins at 6 p.m. Parents, you are encouraged to participate with your child.

END SLIDE PRESENTATION